

Londonderry Sifter

Independent—All the News While it is News.

Vol XXXVIII—No 44

South Londonderry, Vt., Thursday, October 13, 1921

Price Five Cents

The Londonderry Sifter

PUBLISHED THURSDAYS
PRICE: $1.50 PER YEAR
To Everybody Everywhere!
IN ADVANCE

H. E. MUNDELL,
Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the Post-office at So. Londonderry as second class matter.

If you have anything to sell or wish to buy anything here is a chance to make your wants widely known at a trifling cost.

Cards of thanks, not being news must be paid for.

Marriages, births and deaths, being news will be published free.

Obituary, anniversary, wedding and similar "poems" will not be printed unless paid for and so marked.

No display advertisements will be set for this paper unless received not later than Wednesday forenoon.

South Londonderry Locals

Once again the beautiful sun greets us with a smile.

Ione Pearson is boarding with Mr and Mrs Lyle Hunt.

Quite a few attended the fair at Chester last Friday.

Mr and Mrs J. W. Works of Greenfield, Mass. are guests at O. S. Stuart's.

Rev. and Mrs E. E. Eno are on their annual vacation of two weeks in the North part of the state.

Remember the drama, "The Adventures of Grandpa" at Town Hall for Oct. 28th.

Married—October 12, Mrs Ethel Patterson of East Jamaica and Lyle O. Pierce of South Londonderry.

Mr and Mrs Herbert Babineau and son motored from Greenfield, Mass. and are guests at O. S. Stuart's.

Mr and Mrs Isaac Babineau and son where callers at Mrs Wyman's at Londonderry, Mrs Wyman returning with them.

Mrs Emma Mundell and her two children, Clara May and Winslow, and Ed Rowley are visiting friends in Troy, N. Y.

Mr and Mrs D. A. Stratton of Springfield, Mass., are visiting her sister, Mrs H. G. Alexander, this week.

R. J. Joyal moved Friday from the Landman tenement on Church street to B. B. Rawson tenement on Depot street.

Of course you all will be at the Chautauqua this evening and will attend each afternoon and evening, closing Saturday evening. Of course you will—all the rest are.

The burial of the late Osro R. Clayton was changed from Bennington to Chester at the last moment, hence the error last week.

All the schools are closed this week on account of the teachers convention now in session in Rutland.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Vaile and Mr and Mrs F. H. Tyler took an auto spin to the Somerset dam Sunday, returning by the way of Searsburg and Wilmington.

The directors meeting of the Green Mt Farmers Exchange shows the company to be doing a big business. A drive was made by the directors and over 50 shares was subscribed, leaving only 77 more to sell. Building is completed and is a credit to the place. A dividend of 6 per cent was declared on paid in stock payable December 1. The directors are in hopes to sell the balance of the stock before Dec. 1, it being the 3rd anniversary of its anniversary of its organization.

Kent Rebekah Lodge entertained a large number of guests from the four lodges of district No. 10, who, with good delegations from Mizpah lodge of Ludlow, Excelsior of Manchester Depot and Hope of Chester, gathered for the annual meeting of the district with Mrs Musie Darling the Deputy President. A banquet was served from 5:30 to 7. Meeting opened by Kent lodge, Mrs L. Kierce, N. G. Reports from organizations were read from all lodges.

Dennis lodge of Brattleboro, exemplified the degree work. Assembly and Grand lodge officers present as honor guests of the evening were Mrs Adelle B. Wallis, assembly president, Mrs Mabel Caldwell, V. P.; Miss Emma Gates, sec.; Miss Clara Marden, D. P.; Mrs Musie Darling, D. P.; Mrs Grace Gleason, D. P.; Chas. G. Staples, D. G. M.; Henry T. Brown, G. R.; Otis Cummings, D. D. G. M.; F. E. Perry, P. G. M.; Col. G. A. Metcalf. Certificates of perfection in the unwritten work of the degree were presented to a large class by president and secretary.

Community Supper

Although the good work of the dramatic club in building a large dining room and kitchen at the rear of the town hall is rather far from completion, it has been decided to give an oyster supper there next Saturday eve at 5:30 o'clock.

It is hoped many who attend the Chautauqua that afternoon will patronize the supper and remain for the evening entertainment.

The proceeds will be used to help in the expense of the new rooms.

Everybody come and thereby give a helping hand.

W. W. Slason comes to the front and claims to have dug 107 potatoes from one hill.

Miss Etta Rollins will be with us again shortly after Christmas and will probably open another dancing series at the hotel.

B. H. LaRue, the mason, is ready to do all kinds of mason work, such as chimneys, plastering and stone work at short notice.

W. Hans Nietzsche of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting friends in town, sang a duet with Mrs Gladys Kelly Davis at the Baptist church last Sunday. It being known that they were to sing, a much larger audience attended to enjoy the treat.

The man who is true to himself is never a traitor to others.

"The teachers are away and how their broods do play"

LAY or BUST
DRY MASH

EVERY HEALTHY HEN
is willing and glad
TO LAY
if she has half decent quarters
and the right feed.
You supply the quarters and we supply
the feed and the eggs are so certain that we sell LAY or BUST feeds on the Money Back Plan No Lay - No Pay
ASK US HOW

Green Mt Farmers' Exchange,
South Londonderry, Vt.

Auto Bus Line

—Between—

Londonderry - Brattleboro

Beginning Monday, October 10th, will leave
Londonderry daily, except Sunday, at 8 a. m.

Return trip leave Brattleboro at 4 p. m.

ROWLEY & WHITE,

Londonderry, Vt.

Tel. 49-1